problems, and/or disabilities which may affect his/her safety and ability to ride. Any riders who are pregnant must disclose their condition and are recommended not to ride.

D Nature of horses. RIDER understands that horseback riding is classified as a rugged adventure recreational activity, and that there are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in such activity, and that there are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in such activity despite all safety precautions; related injuries can be severe. RIDER understands that no horse is completely safe. If a horse is frightened or provoked it may divert from its training and act accordingly to its natural survival instincts which may include, but not limited to stopping short, changing directions or speed at will, bucking, rearing, kicking, biting, or running from danger.

E Rider Responsibility.

RIDER understands that upon taking control of a horse, whether or not mounted, the rider/handler is in primary control of the horse. The RIDER'S safety largely depends upon the riders ability to carry out instructions, and the riders ability to remain balanced aboard a moving animal. RIDER agrees that RIDER shall be responsible for his/her own safety.

F Conditions OF Nature.

RIDER understands that STABLE is NOT responsible for total or partial acts, occurrences or elements of nature, such as thunder, lightning, rain, wind, water, wild, and domestic animals, insects, reptiles, which can scare a horse, cause it to fall, or react in some other safe way.

G Protective Headgear. RIDER understands that he/she have been made aware of the benefits of wearing protective headgear (riding helmet) by the STABLE and do understand that the wearing of such headgear while mounting, riding, dismounting, and otherwise being around horses, may prevent or reduce severity of some head injuries, and may even prevent death happening as the result of a fall or other occurrence. It is the rider's decision as to whether he/she will wear a helmet.
